This article is an Incomplete Article, it requires editors to improve it. This article includes both the novella (book) and the graphic novel (comic) of Coraline as both describe the same story with relatively little differences. The Coraline book was written by Neil Gaiman. First published on February 24th 2002. The Coraline graphic novel was adapted by P. Craig Russell and lettered by Todd Klein. First published in 2008. The 2009 Will Eisner Comic Industry Awards for Best Publication for Teens. When Coraline steps through a door in her family's new house, she finds another house strangely similar to her own (only better). But there's another mother there and another father, and they want her to stay and be their little girl. They want to change her and never let her go. In the flat above Coraline's, under the roof, was a crazy old man with a big... The hair over her...
