As a cat owner, you can have a huge impact on the health and wellbeing of your companion by undertaking routine preventive healthcare at all stages of their life - from kittenhood through to old age. This offers the best chance of preventing problems arising or, at least, maximising the detection of any illnesses early on.

Always provide clean water for your cat. Milk is unnecessary and may cause diarrhoea in lactose intolerant cats.

Dental Care.