The ancient Chinese story of the tangram is that a sage, a wise old man was to take a precious sheet of glass to the king who needed a window in his palace. The square piece of glass was wrapped in silk and canvas and carried in the sage's backpack. The journey was long, the sage crossed a desert and rivers, he travelled through forests and fields. Tangrams are ancient Chinese puzzles that are still used today by both adults and children. A tangram begins with a square. This square is cut into seven standard pieces. Each piece is called a tan. When creating pictures with tangrams all seven pieces must be used to complete each picture. When tangrams are used during storytelling, the storyteller arranges the tans to show the shape of the characters in the story. Each new arrangement helps to tell the story elements as the story develops. Easy Tangrams Puzzles. Help your child's imagination grow with these Tangram picture cards.
