Domination and Resistance | 9780203985137 | 1995 | 352 pages | Daniel Miller, Michael Rowlands, Chris Tilley | Taylor & Francis, 1995

"An extremely well-crafted, provocative book that explores both the public and private discourses of the powerful and the powerless. . . . In brilliantly articulating the role of culture and voice in domination and resistance, this book itself becomes a public transcript of sociological issues which have often been ignored or underestimated."—John Gaventa, Contemporary Sociology. "Advanc[es] scholarship and produc[es] interesting, even fascinating, insights and other provocations."—Indochina Chronology. "Scott's work, with its index of many of the forms and determ
