"on 10 October 1823 Ezekial Field filed a bill in chancery in the Jefferson County Circuit Court on behalf of himself, his sister Polly Brown (Mrs. George Brown), and the surviving children of thier brothers Cain and John, both dead, as hiers of the deceased Abraham Field. This bill disclosed they felt William Lewis and his wife Cynthia were getting an undue share of Abraham Field's estate and also missrepresenting the extent of Abraham's property and the agreement on which Abraham and Betty has lived on Lewis's land during the last 8 years of Abraham's life."

The author of the Book of Ezekiel presents himself as Ezekiel, the son of Buzzi, born into a priestly (Kohen) lineage. Apart from identifying himself, the author gives a date for the first divine encounter which he presents: “in the thirtieth year.” If this is a reference to Ezekiel's age at the time, he was born around 622 BCE, about. Biography. Ezekiel was captured by a party of Shawnee Indians when he, his father, and a small party were exploring the Kanawha River country. Ezekiel had not been found when his father made out his will which refers to the fact of his son, Ezekiel, being missing, and the “certainty of his being dead or alive not known.” His father left him much property in case he was found alive. Ezekiel lived with the Indians for two years. Accompanying a trading party to Fort Duguesul, near Pittsburg, he was recognized and ransomed by Col. Ezekiel-H. 2 Watchers951
