
Start by marking “If You Were a Question Mark” as Want to Read: Want to Read saving… Want to Read. Did someone steal Sophie’s cupcake? When? Who saw the thief? What else could you do if you were a question mark? If you were a question mark, you would wonder many things. Did someone steal Sophie’s cupcake? When? Who saw the thief? What else could you do if you were a question mark? ...more. Get A Copy. Amazon. Online Stores –¾. If a question mark is part of an italicized or underlined title, make sure that the question mark is also italicized: My favorite book is Where Did He Go? (Do not add a period after such a sentence that ends with the title’s question mark. The question mark will also suffice to end the sentence.) If the question mark is not part of a sentence-ending title, don’t italicize the question mark: Did he sing the French national anthem, la Marseillaise? 1 If you feel we have provided something of value and wish to show your appreciation, you can assist the College and its students with a tax-deductible contribution. For more about giving to Capital, write to CCC Foundation, 950 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06103. Phone (860) 906-5102 or email: jmcnamara@ccc.commnet.edu. Using question marks for indicating uncertainty. 1. Use a question mark enclosed in parenthesis (?) if a date or another number is unknown or doubtful among the experts. Do not use a question mark to communicate that you are unsure of the information you write, as this weakens the authority of your writing. Joan of Arc, 1412 (?) – 1431, is considered a French heroine. were/was, would go. You're sitting in the classroom on a hot day. You're dar-dreaming about going to the beach. You think: If today (be) . a holiday, I (go) . to the beach. knew, would tell. You can't answer a question in your English book. You ask a friend to help, but she doesn't know the answer. She says: If i (know) . the answer, I (tell) . you. run, will catch. You're walking towards the bus stop with a friend. Suddenly the bus arrives. The bus stop is far away, but you think there is a chance of catching the bus. You say: If we (run) . , we (catch) . It rains, Quotation marks are not used when you are talking to yourself. The only exception is that you are quoting yourself as a reference. Do you put quotation marks around a reference book title? No, you do not put quotation marks around the title of any book. Book titles are either underlined or italicized. Do you put quotation marks when quoting a book? According to MLA formatting, you are supposed to either underline or italicize a books title.Â If you are quoting from the middle of a sentence, just put in quotation marks, a few dots, and then begin the quote, eg: “...or not to be: that is the question.” Do you use italics for a chapter of a book? No, you put them in quotation marks. Do you put quotes on every set of direct quotes in a list? Yes.