Purpose: to discuss the current trends in global higher education arena, conduct literature review on internationalization of higher education as a response to globalization.

Methodology: literature review, secondary data on internationalization survey. Originality/Value: this paper attempts to systematize popular and attractive dimensions of academic collaborations among universities, the appropriate responses of higher education institutions in developing countries by comparing countries from two regions. Findings: although universities try to address challenges of globalisation differently, the Students as suspects? book. Read reviews from world’s largest community for readers. COuld policies aimed at preventing radicalisation in Europe end up u...Â Start by marking Students as suspects?: The challenges of counter-radicalisation policies in education in the Council of Europe member states as Want to Read: Want to Read saving… Want to Read. Council of Europe has published the book Higher education’s response to the Covid-19 pandemic - Building a more sustainable and democratic future. The book describes the various ways in which higher education is responding to the Covid-19 pandemic.Â System of State Universities of Oaxaca has released the book: Pandemic: The Catastrophic Crisis (in Spanish and English). The work is coordinated by Dr. Modesto Seara Vázquez and constitutes an analysis of the pandemic, within the framework of what is considered to be a major systemic crisis (January, 2021).Â The platform aims to assist students as they continue to study during the Covid-19 pandemic and is full of resources and tools designed to help students (in French).